

5th INTERNATIONAL NEPS CONFERENCE

December 7-8, 2020 | LifBi Bamberg

CALL FOR PAPERS II

The International NEPS Conference is hosted for the fifth time by LifBi – Leibniz Institute for Educational Trajectories, Bamberg. The event brings together scientists from different disciplines and from different stages of their academic careers to discuss current projects and findings in educational research. The framework is set up by the data infrastructure of the National Educational Panel Study (NEPS) with its six panel cohorts and its thematic focuses on competence development across the life course, educational processes in different learning environments, educational choices and social inequality, acquisition of education against the background of migration, returns to education, and motivational as well as personality aspects → www.neps-data.de.

Important note: Due to the ongoing situation caused by the Corona pandemic, we offer the possibility to participate in the event via video conference. Physical presence is not a requirement.

Empirical contributions on all NEPS-related topics, including methodological issues, are welcome for presentations. The analyses to be presented do not necessarily have to be based on the NEPS data. Also on the agenda are a keynote lecture by Michelle Jackson (Stanford University, U.S.) on the benefits of the fundamental causes approach for research on educational inequality and the granting of the NEPS Publication Award. Conference language is English.
