

8th INTERNATIONAL NEPS CONFERENCE

Survey Data Linked to Administrative Data: NEPS-ADIAB & Co.

November 9-10, 2023 | LifBi Bamberg

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Leibniz Institute for Educational Trajectories (LifBi) cordially invites to the 8th International NEPS Conference. This year, the conference will be organized as a symposium focusing on findings and potentials in educational, employment and labor market research based on linked survey and administrative data. The framework is provided by NEPS-ADIAB, a collection of linked datasets jointly offered by the LifBi and the Institute for Employment Research (IAB). By now, linked data from five NEPS cohorts – newborns (parents), fifth graders, ninth graders, students, and adults – are available to the scientific community; with administrative information partially ranging from 1975 to 2020 → <https://www.neps-data.de/Data-Center/Data-and-Documentation/NEPS-ADIAB>.

Contributions do not necessarily have to be based on NEPS-ADIAB, research using other linked data sources is also welcome. Presentations of results from completed or ongoing projects are possible as well as the introduction of research ideas. The program will consist of oral presentations and a poster session, complemented by an invited keynote address. Conference language is English. More information and regular updates are available here → www.neps-data.de/neps-conference2023.
